1 Introduction

The Board and Corporate Management of BERUWALA RESORTS PLC (“BERUWALA”) is responsible for maintaining a sound system of risk management and internal controls to safeguard shareholders’ investment and the company’s assets. This policy sets out the duties and processes which facilitate the discharge of the Board’s and Corporate Management duties in this regard.

2 Board responsibilities

2.1 Risk Management

The Board of BERUWALA shall identify principal risks on an ongoing basis and ensure the implementation of appropriate systems to evaluate and manage these risks by considering the following factors:

- a) The nature and extent of risks facing the company;
- b) The adequacy of the entire risk management framework of the company
- c) The extent and categories of risk which it regards as acceptable for the company to bear;
- d) The likelihood of the risks concerned materializing;
- e) The company’s ability to reduce the incidence of risks that do materialize and their impact on the business; and
- f) The costs of operating particular controls relative to the benefit thereby obtained in managing the related risks

2.2 Internal Control

The Board of BERUWALA shall discharge its responsibilities with regard to setting in place a system of comprehensive internal control in the manner specified below:

- a) The Board of BERUWALA shall discharge its responsibilities with regard to setting in place a system of comprehensive internal control in the manner specified below:
- b) Reviewing the design and effectiveness of the company’s internal control systems and management information systems including systems for compliance with applicable laws, regulations, rules, directives and guidelines is an essential part of the board’s responsibilities.
- c) Defining the process to be adopted for its review of the design and effectiveness of internal control. This should encompass both the scope and frequency of the reports it receives and reviews during the year, and also the process for its assessment.
- d) Assessing and forming its own view on the design and effectiveness of the company’s internal control systems after due and careful enquiry based on the information and assurances provided to it. Management is accountable to the board for monitoring the company’s internal control systems and for providing assurance to the board that it has done so.
- e) Effectively monitor on a continuous basis the effective operation of the system of internal controls implemented which is an essential component of a sound system of internal control. The board cannot, however, rely solely on the embedded monitoring processes within the Company to discharge its responsibilities. It should regularly receive and review reports on internal control through an independent internal audit function or an outsourced internal auditor.
- f) Establish an internal audit function with operationally independent, appropriately trained and competent staff who will carry out an effective and comprehensive internal audit of the internal control systems.

- g) The board should review reports presented to it by management, internal and external audit to ensure that:
- h) Significant risks are identified and documented and assessed how they have been evaluated, monitored and managed;
- i) The design and effectiveness of the related system of internal control having regard, in particular, to any significant failures or weaknesses in internal control that have been reported;
- j) necessary action is being taken promptly to remedy any significant failings or weaknesses; and
- k) if the findings indicate a need of more extensive monitoring of the system of internal controls sufficient resources are deployed.

3 Role of the Audit Committee

- A. The Audit Committee assists the Board in discharge of their duties regarding risk management and internal control. This policy should be read in conjunction with the Policy on Board Committees.
- B. The Audit Committee will be responsible for oversight of the processes to ensure that the Entity's internal controls and risk management are adequate to meet the requirements of the Sri Lanka Auditing Standards.
